ABSTRACT

Notes on the names of the Riodinidae & Lycaenidae are arranged in a thirteen-part catalogue. Part I is an alphabetic list of the Type-Genera of the Family-Group names. Part II is a synonymic list of the Family-Group names. Part III is an index to the authors and bibliography of the Family-group names. Part IV is an alphabetic list of the Genus-Group names, including data on authorship, place of publication, type-species, method of type-species designation and position in the classification. Part V is a synonymic list of the Genus-Group names. Part VI is an index to the authors and bibliography of the Genus-Group names. Part VII is an alphabetic index to the Type-Species of the Genus-Group names. Part VIII is an alphabetic list of the Species-Group names, including data on authorship, place of publication, type locality, location of type specimens and classification. Part IX is a synonymic list of the Species-Group names. Part X is an index to the authors and bibliography of the Species-Group names. Part XI is the bibliography, including information on the author's place and date of birth and death, and on the whereabouts of their collections. Part XII is an index to the bibliography by journal title, including the full titles of the journals and serials, and information on their places and dates of publication. Part XIII is an index to the bibliography by year of publication. Appendix I is a list of Genus-Group names that need additional research. Appendix II is a list of Species-Group names that need additional research. Appendix III is a list of Bibliography citations that need additional research.

The arrangement of the names is based entirely on bibliographic references. No specimens have been examined, and no new names are introduced.

INTRODUCTION

Zoological nomenclature is the system of scientific names applied to taxonomic units of animals, while the International Code of Zoological Nomenclature is the system of rules and recommendations governing the use of these names at the family-group, genus-group and species-group levels. It is consistent with the code to say that names may be objectively classified as either available or unavailable, the determination depending on the details of publication, etc. The available names may be further divided into objectively valid and objectively invalid names, and, in accordance with the Code, only the objectively valid names may be used for naming taxa.

GENUS-GROUP NAMES

In addition to the above objective classification of names, the objectively valid Genus-Group names may be further subjectively classified according to their use as names of genera, subgenera or unused synonyms. When a name is used for a generic- or subgeneric-level taxon it is said to be validated at the generic- or subgeneric-level, while if it is considered to apply to a taxon which has an older valid name, it is said to be invalidated as a junior subjective synonym.

In this catalogue the genus-group names are assigned one of the five letter codes [a-e] according to their status as available/unavailable, objectively valid/invalid, and depending on their use as the name for a genus, subgenus, or as an unused synonym, as defined by the following table.

Table I - Definition of Status Letter Codes [a-e]

Letter code	Nomenclatural status (objective)	Subjective use	Print	Indentation (in Part V)	Number of names

SPECIES-GROUP NAMES

Like the Genus-Group names, the objectively valid Species-Group names may be further subjectively classified according to their use as names of species, subspecies or unused synonyms. When a name is used for a species- or subspecies-level taxon it is said to be validated at the species- or subspecies-level, while if it is considered to apply to a taxon which has an older valid names, it is said to be invalidated as a junior subjective synonym.

In this catalogue the species-group names are assigned one of the five letter codes [a-e] according to their status as available/unavailable, objectively valid/invalid, and depending on their use as the name for a species, subspecies, or as an unused synonym, as defined by the following table.

BASIC LITERATURE

Journal titles have been checked in the World List of Scientific Periodicals, [b5038], and this data is included in Part XI. Bibliographic information on the authors has been found in Gilbert, 1958 (A Compendium of the Biographical Literature on Deceased Entomologists, [b1946]), Carpenter, 1945 & 1953 (Bibliography of Biographies of Entomologists, [b0717 & b0718]), Horn and Schenkling, 1928 (Index Litteraturae Entomologicae, Serie I, [b2456]) and Derksen and Scheiding-Göllner, 1965 (Index Litteraturae Entomologicae, Serie II [b1203]). The basic list of names was taken from various sources, and supplemented by study of the Zoological Record, which has been greatly aided by the index compiled by Beattie, 1976 (Rhopalocera Directory [b0276]).

The task of building up the bibliography has been greatly aided by using, in addition to the above, Moulds, 1977 (Bibliography of the Australian Butterflies [b3256]), Field, dos Passos & Masters, 1974 (A Bibliography of the Catalogs, Lists, Faunal and Other Papers of the Butterflies of North America North of Mexico Arranged by State and Province [b1739]), and Kudrna, 1986 (Butterflies of Europe, Volume 1. Concise Bibliography [b2857]). Finally, much useful information about the literature has been gained by study of the catalogues of Wheldon & Wesley [b4994].

PUBLICATION DATES OF GENUS-GROUP AND SPECIES-GROUP NAMES

The 10th edition of Linnaeus' Systema Naturae [b2993] marks the beginning of the consistent general application of binomial nomenclature in zoology. The date 1 January 1758 is arbitrarily assigned to that work, and taken as the starting point of zoological nomenclature. The following tables give the number of names published in each 10-year interval from 1758 to the present. The data are broken down according to the nomenclatural status of the names, represented by the status codes [a-e], as previously defined.

MUSEUMS WITH TYPE SPECIMENS

The following list gives data on the location of type specimens, taken from various sources. Since only 6054 entries in the catalogue include information about the type specimen, it can be seen that the table is far from complete. Acronyms for museum names have, in general, been taken from Heppner and Lamas, 1982 (Acronyms for World Museum Collections of Insects, with an Emphasis on Neotropical Lepidoptera, [b2305]) or from Arnett, Samuelson and Nishida, 1993 (The Insect and Spider Collections of the World, [b0134]).

SPELLING

The species-group names are spelled, in general, in the same way as they were spelled in the original descriptions. No attempt has been made to correct the termination of Latin or latinized adjectival or participial species-group names to agree in gender with the generic names they are currently associated with.

TYPE-GENERA OF FAMILY-GROUP NAMES

INTRODUCTION

In this section the Type-genera of the Family-group names are arranged in alphabetic order. Each name is cross-referenced to the position(s) of the Family-group names in the Synonymic List (Part II).

PART II
SYNONYMIC LIST OF FAMILY-GROUP NAMES

INTRODUCTION

In this section the Family-group names are arranged in a synonymic list. The family-group names are printed 'bold' if they are objectively valid, printed 'light' if they are objectively invalid, and in 'italics' if they are unavailable. Names preceded by a '+' are considered synonyms (subjectively invalid) and are not used in the classification. Names preceded by a '†' pertain to fossil forms. The standard endings for Family-Group names are taken to be -oidea (superfamily), -idae (family), -inae (subfamily), -ini (tribe) and -iini (subtribe).

PART IV
GENUS-GROUP NAMES

INTRODUCTION

In this section the Genus-group names are arranged in alphabetic order. If two names are spelled the same, they are ordered by date of publication, and if they have the same publication date they are arranged by the author name.

ABBREVIATIONS

The following abbreviations are used in this section.

H.....	Homonym
HC.....	Higher Classification (Key)
ICZN.....	International Commission of Zoological Nomenclature
ISS.....	Incorrect Subsequent Spelling
JOS.....	Junior Objective Synonym
NN.....	Nomen Nudum
OD.....	Original Description
OS.....	Objective Synonym
PD.....	Pending Decision (by the ICZN)
PS.....	Published in Synonymy
PWL.....	Published Without Indication
RC.....	Rejected by the Commission (ICZN)
Refs.....	References
SS.....	Subjective Synonym
TM.....	Type method
TS.....	Type-species

PART V
SYNONYMIC LIST OF GENUS-GROUP NAMES

INTRODUCTION

In this section the Genus-group names are arranged in a synonymic list. The genus-group names are printed 'bold' if they are objectively valid, printed 'light' if they are objectively invalid, and in 'italics' if they are unavailable. Each group is preceded with a key to the higher classification which can easily be read with the help of Part II. For example, Acanthaeschna is in the group headed Anl:Aes:Aes:Bra:Brachytronini, which can be read as Suborder Anisoptera, Superfamily Aeshnoidea, Family Aeshnidae, Subfamily Brachytroninae, Tribe Brachytronini. The fossil genera are listed in alphabetic order at the beginning of the list. However some addition information about their placement may be found in Part III. The correct position of some genera is not known, and these have been placed in groups with incomplete headings. For example, the placement of Idiogomphoides is not known to the tribal level, so it is placed under the incomplete heading Anl:Gom:Gom:Gom:.

The following abbreviations are used in this section.

H.....	Homonym
ICZN.....	International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature
IOS.....	Incorrect Original Spelling
ISS.....	Incorrect Subsequent Spelling
JOS.....	Junior Objective Synonym
NN.....	Nomen Nudum
PD.....	Pending Decision (by the ICZN)
PS.....	Published in Synonymy
RC.....	Rejected by the Commission (ICZN)

PART VI
INDEX TO BIBLIOGRAPHIC CITATIONS
FOR
GENUS-GROUP NAMES

INTRODUCTION

This section is straightforward and needs little introduction. It consists of an index to all those publications which contain original descriptions of Genus-group names, original descriptions of Type-species of Genus-group names or valid Type-species designations of Genus-group names. The particular type of citation is indicated in the first column, where the status letter codes [a-e] are given if the citation is to the original description of a name, TS is given if the citation is to the original description of the Type-species, or TM is given if the citation is to the Type-species designation.

PART VIII
SPECIES-GROUP NAMES

INTRODUCTION

In this section the species-group names are arranged in alphabetic order. If two names are spelled the same, they are ordered by date of publication, and if they have the same publication date they are arranged by the author's name.

The following abbreviations are used in this section.

ab.....	abberation
CG.....	Current Genus
Dist:.....	Distribution
f.....	form
H.....	Homonym
IFS.....	Infrasubspecific
JOS.....	Junior Objective Synonym
MID.....	Misidentification
NN.....	Nomen Nudum
OD.....	Original Description
OS.....	Objective Synonym
PS.....	Published in Synonymy
Refs.....	References
SS.....	Subjective Synonym
TypeL.....	Type Locality
